Leadership Greensboro 2010 Leadership Medal Nomination Form

Deadline: Friday, April 2, 2010

The Leadership Medal is awarded annually and designed to recognize and reward outstanding leadership in Greensboro. Leadership Medals are presented to individuals who demonstrate exemplary leadership, positively affecting the citizens and community of Greensboro. The award is not based on the recipient's views, position, organization or the environment within which the recipient demonstrates outstanding leadership. The intent is to focus on the commitment, courage and positive contribution of the recipient's leadership.

Medals will normally be awarded to those individuals who are members of Leadership Greensboro; however, those who have made a significant, positive impact upon Greensboro may also be selected.

We seek candidates who demonstrate the following qualities:

- Are servant leaders
- Serve out of a personal mission
- Are inclusive
- Are process facilitators
- Empower others
- Understand the power of vision
- Are change agents

The nominee:

- Must work or live in Greensboro
- Exhibits exemplary leadership in a community leadership capacity
- May or may not be a Leadership Greensboro member

Each recipient will receive a distinguished Leadership Medal presented at the annual dinner for Leadership Greensboro on Tuesday, May 18, 2010. Guests of the recipient are invited to attend.

Nominations will be encouraged from Leadership Greensboro members, chamber members and community at large. A committee comprised of Leadership Greensboro members will select up to five recipients.
